Unit Pricing, Fund Valuation and Cut off Timings

Unit Price: The unit price of the fund is arrived at by dividing the Net Asset Value (NAV) of the fund by the number of units existing in the fund at the valuation date (before any new unit is allocated or cancelled)

Fund Value: The Fund Value is equal to the number of units under this policy multiplied by respective Unit Price on the relevant Valuation Date.

Valuation Date: The Company aims to value the fund on each day the financial markets are open. However, the company reserves the right to value less frequently than every day in extreme circumstances, where the value of the assets may be too uncertain. In such circumstances, the Company may defer valuation of assets until a certainty on the value of assets is resumed.

Cut-off Timings: Currently, the cut off timings is 3:00 pm for applicability of Unit Price of a particular day for allocation of units, redemption and publication of Unit Price

Method of calculation of unit values:

The unit pricing shall be computed based on whether the company is purchasing (appropriation price) or selling (expropriation price) the assets in order to meet the day to day transactions of unit allocations and unit redemptions i.e. the company shall be required to sell/purchase the assets if unit redemptions/allocations exceed unit allocations/redemptions at the valuation date.

The Appropriation price shall apply in a situation when the company is required to purchase the assets to allocate the units at the valuation date as stated above. This shall be the amount of money that the company should put into the fund in respect of each unit it allocates in order to preserve the interests of the existing policyholders.

The Expropriation price shall apply in a situation when the company is required to sell assets to redeem the units at the valuation date as stated as above. This shall be the amount of money that the company should take out of the fund in respect of each unit it cancels in order to preserve the interests of the existing policyholders.

Computation of NAV

When Appropriation price is applied: The NAV for a particular fund shall be computed as Market value of investment held by the fund plus the expenses incurred in the purchase of the assets plus the value of any current assets plus any accrued income net of fund management charges less the value of any current liabilities less provisions, if any. This gives the net asset value of the fund. Dividing by the number of units existing at the valuation date (before any new units are allocated), gives the unit price of the fund under consideration.

When Expropriation price is applied: The NAV for a particular fund shall be computed as Market Value of investment held by the fund less the expenses incurred in the sale of the assets plus the value of any current assets plus any accrued income net of fund management charges less the value of any current liabilities less provisions, if any. This gives the net asset value of the fund. Dividing by the number of units existing at the valuation date (before any units are redeemed), gives the unit price of the fund under consideration.

In case the valuation day falls on a holiday, then the exercise will be done the following working day.

We reserve the right to value less frequently than every day in extreme circumstances, where the value of the assets may be too uncertain. In such circumstances we may defer valuation of assets until normality returns. Examples of such circumstances are:

- a) When one or more stock exchanges which provide a basis for valuation for a substantial portion of the assets of the fund are closed otherwise than for ordinary holidays
- b) When, as a result of political, economic, monetary or any circumstances out of our control, the disposal of the assets of the unit fund are not reasonable or would not reasonably be practicable without being detrimental to the interests of the remaining unit holders.
- c) During periods of extreme volatility of markets during which surrenders and switches would, in our opinion, be detrimental to the interests of the existing unit holders of the fund.
- d) In the case of natural calamities, strikes, war, civil unrest, riots and bandhs.
- e) In the event of any force majeure or disaster that affects our normal functioning.
- f) If so directed by the IRDA.

Allocation of units

The company applies premiums to allocate units in the unit linked fund offered under this plan. The allotment of units to the policyholders will be done only after the receipt of premium proceeds as stated below:

In case of New Business, units shall only be allocated on the day the proposal is completed and results into a policy by the application of money towards premium.

In respect of premiums received up to 3.00 p.m. currently by the company along with a local cheque or a demand draft payable at par at the place where the premium is received, the closing unit price of the day on which the premium is received shall be applicable.

In respect of premiums received after 3.00 p.m. currently by the company along with a local cheque or a demand draft payable at par at the place where the premium is received, the closing unit price of the next business day shall be applicable.

In respect of premiums received with outstation cheques or demand drafts at the place where the premium is received, the closing unit price of the day on which cheques / demand draft is realised shall be applicable.

Redemptions

In respect of valid applications received (e.g. surrender, maturity claim, etc) up to 3.00 p.m. currently by the insurer, the same day's closing unit price shall be applicable.

In respect of valid applications received (e.g. surrender, maturity claim, etc) after 3.00 p.m. currently by the insurer, the closing unit price of the next business day shall be applicable.

The unit price for the segregated fund provided under this product shall be made available to the public in the print media on a daily basis. The unit price will also be displayed in the web portal of the company.

Cancellation of units

To pay benefits, the company will cancel sufficient units to meet the amount of the payments which are due. The units will be cancelled at the prevailing unit price.

The value of a policyholder's fund

The value of a policyholder's fund at any time is the number of units allocated to the contract at that time multiplied by the applicable unit price.

Flexibility available under this plan:

a) Premium Payment Option

For your convenience we are providing only Single premium option. The minimum single premium amount is Rs.35,000. There is no limit on the maximum single premium amount.

Under this option, the policy holder can transfer policy benefits (surrender, maturity etc.) either fully or partially to another plan wherein exchange option is available. This option must be exercised at least 30 days before the receipt of benefit under the policy. The terms and conditions as specified in the opted policy document would apply to the policy holder opting for the 'Exchange Option'. The new plan would be offered on the life of the policy holder.

However, at any point of time during the policy term, the minimum fund balance after the partial withdrawal should be at least equal to 80% of Single Premium .

On a partial withdrawal, the Sum Assured will be reduced by the amount of partial withdrawals made in the preceding 24 months of the date of partial withdrawal.

The partial withdrawal charges applied are stated in the section named "Charges and Recovery of Charges" under this plan. On partial withdrawal, the maturity guarantee on the balance of fund will lapse.

d) Settlement Option

The policyholder has the option to take the maturity proceeds in periodic instalments within a maximum of 5 years from the date of maturity. The policyholder has to give a notice to the insurer at least 30 days before the maturity date. The periodic installment could be in any form including lump sum or infrequent withdrawals as requested by the policyholder.

During the settlement period, there will be no life cover and guarantee on investment return. The policy will participate in the performance of units. There will not be any deductions towards mortality charges.

The Company will however continue to deduct administration charges by cancellation of units. The fund management charge will be priced in the unit value.

In the event of death of the Insured during settlement period the fund value as on the date of intimation of death at the office will be paid to the nominee.

During the settlement period, the investments made in the unit funds are subject to investment risks associated with capital markets and the NAV's of the units may go up or down based on the performance of the fund and the factors influencing the capital market.

The investment risk during the settlement period will be borne by the policyholder.
