

Non-participating, non Linked, group protection rider

Every employer’s endeavor is to make his employees feel comfortable and cared for at the workplace. Employers provide them with adequate insurance coverage and Medi-claim policies, so that the family’s needs are taken care off in case of an eventuality. But, in today’s fast changing and uncertain world, is this enough?

This insurance cover can be enhanced significantly, by covering Accidental Death, at a nominal cost. This offers additional support to the family, stroked with grief of the loss of their loved one.

‘Reliance Group Accidental Additional Death Benefit Rider’ is a protection rider that can be attached to the base group insurance policy to cover against financial loss due to an accidental death.

Benefits in detail*Key Benefits

- Accidental Death <sup>T&C7</sup>

The Accidental Death benefit is payable if death occurs directly as a result of an accident and within 180 days of the occurrence of the accident. Accident means a sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external and visible means. The benefit amount equals the Sum Assured under the Rider Policy.

- Continuation Option

- An employee has an option to purchase replacement death cover from the Company under an individual endowment or whole life policy subject to the applicable premium rates, terms and conditions, and availability at that time.
- The policy is renewable at the option of the Master Policyholder at the end of every year subject to the then corresponding premium rates for the group of members.

- Maturity Benefit

No Maturity Benefit is payable.

- Premium Payment Mode <sup>T&C7</sup>

Rider Premiums can be paid yearly, half-yearly, quarterly, or monthly.

Other features

- Experience Refund:

Experience Sharing refers to refunding of premiums based on positive claims experience to premium ratio for the group.

○ Grace period for payment of premiums

There is a grace period of 30 days applicable from the due date of payment of premiums if the payment is made in yearly, half-yearly or quarterly modes. In case the premiums are paid in monthly mode, then the grace period applicable is of 15 days.

○ Premium Discontinuance

If you discontinue payment of premiums, your policy will either lapse or become Paid-up as mentioned below:

• Lapse

The policy will lapse if the due premiums are not paid within the grace period and the rider benefits will cease immediately. In case the policy is in a lapsed status, the Company will not be liable to honour any claims on account of Accidental Death occurring during that period.

When the Base Group Insurance Policy is lapsed, surrendered or forfeited, the rider attached to the Base Group Insurance Policy will also terminate immediately.

• Surrender of the policy

No Surrender value is payable under the Rider Policy.

• Revival or Reinstatement of the policy

Revival or Reinstatement will be allowed at the discretion of the Company

• Renewal of the policy

- a) You will have the option to renew the policy within 30 days after the expiry of the previous policy term at the premium rates, terms and conditions prevailing at the time of renewal of the policy.
- b) Coverage ceases on the expiry of the previous policy term and no cover exists during this period of 30 days.

- (ii) Short Messaging Services (SMS)
- (iii) Electronic mode which includes e-mail, internet and interactive television (DTH)
- (iv) Physical mode which includes direct postal mail and newspaper & magazine inserts and
- (v) Solicitation through any means of communication other than in person

1. Nomination and Assignment

Nomination, as defined under Section 39 of the Insurance Act 1938, will be allowed under this plan. Assignment, as defined under Section 38 of the Insurance Act 1938, will be allowed under this plan provided it is allowed under the base plan to which this rider is attached.

2. Prohibition of Rebate (Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938)

(1) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer.

Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bona fide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

(2) Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

3. Policy not to be called in question on ground of Mis-statement after two years (Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938)

No policy of life insurance effected before the commencement of this Act shall after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act and no policy of life insurance effected after the coming into force of this Act shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected be called in question by an insurer on the grounds that the statement made in the proposal or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to the issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such a statement was a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the Policyholder and that the Policyholder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose.

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the Life Insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
