The maximum benefit per year is 100% of the rider Sum Assured. Total benefit during the entire policy term shall be 3 times the rider Sum Assured, i.e. multiple claims are allowed during the full policy term, up to a total payment of 300% of the rider Sum Assured. The rider cover will termite once the total benefit payment as stated above is reached and the rider premium will be discontinued. The remaining benefits under the base plan will remain intact.

There is a waiting period of 90 days. i.e. the surgical benefit cannot be claimed if the surgery is triggered by health related clause (and not by Accident) within 90 days after the date of adjustment of first premium or the date of revival/reinstatement whichever is later.

- Premium Payment Mode

  Premiums can be paid yearly, half yearly, quarterly, or monthly. However, premium payment mode for this rider must be same as the premium payment mode for the Base Policy.

  The premium rates, once applied on any policy, will be guaranteed for the first three years of the policy. After three years period, the Company may change the premium rates with three months prior notice subject to the IRDAI approval. Such revised rates would be effective on all in-force policies and new policies sold.

  Other features

  Grace period for payment of premiums

  There is a grace period of 30 days applicable from the due date of payment of premiums if the payment is made in yearly, half-yearly or quarterly modes. In case the premiums are paid in monthly mode, then the grace period applicable is of 15 days.

  Premium Discontinuance

  If you discontinue payment of premiums, your rider cover will lapse as mentioned below:

  - Lapse
Sales Literature – Reliance Nippon Life Major Surgical Benefit Rider

When the Base Policy is lapsed, surrendered or forfeited, the rider attached to the Base Policy will also terminate immediately.

The rider will lapse, if the due premiums under the Base Policy including the rider premium are not paid within the grace period and the Rider benefits will cease immediately.

If the lapsed Base Policy along with the rider is not revived within 2 years of the due date of the first unpaid premium then the rider will be terminated.

- Surrender

  No Surrender value is payable under the Rider.

- Revival

  Revival can be done by paying the arrears of premiums with interest and recommencing the payment of premiums at any time within a period of 2 years from the due date of first unpaid premium but before the maturity of the Base Policy and Rider subject to satisfactory medical and financial evidence as stipulated by the Company from time to time. Rider can be revived only if the discontinued Base Policy, to which the rider is attached, is revived, by paying the arrears of premiums with interest at the prevailing rate of interest. Current rate of interest for revival is 9%.
