Benefits in Detail

This is an optional rider that can be opted along with the non-linked base plans, which provides for financial compensation in case of unfortunate event of an accident leading to total and permanent disability or death within 180 days from the date of accident provided the rider benefit has been in-force at the time of accident.

• Accidental Death Benefit

In an unfortunate event of the death of the life insured due to an accident within 180 days of the occurrence of an accident, in addition to the death benefit under the base plan, an additional benefit equal to the rider sum assured shall be payable under this policy.

Sales Literature – Reliance Nippon Life Accidental Death and Disability Plus Rider

An accident for the purpose of this rider is defined as a sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.

“Accidental Death” means that the life assured sustains any bodily injury resulting solely from an accident and where such injury solely and directly and independently of all other causes results in the death of the life assured within 180 days of its occurrence. The exclusions with respect to the benefit are as mentioned in the Terms & Conditions 4.

- Accidental Total and Permanent Disability Benefit

In the event of the total and permanent disability due to an accident within 180 days from the occurrence of the accident,

- a. An amount equal to the rider sum assured shall be payable in equal annual installment over a 10 years period, under this policy. During the period of installment payment, the rider policy cannot be surrendered. In the event of death of the life assured during the period of installment payment (i.e. within 10 years period), the outstanding installment payments, if any, shall be payable and
- b. Waiver of future premiums payment, if any, under the policy including the premium under the base plan.

The first installment shall be payable on acceptance of the claim, and the remaining annual installments on the anniversaries of the date of payment of the first installment. Upon successful acceptance of the claim, the Rider Policy will cease, and the rider sum assured shall be payable in equal annual installments over a 10 years period.

All future premiums for the base plan and any other Rider benefits, if applicable, shall be waived irrespective of maturity date of the rider.

In case the total and permanent disability is not established within 180 days from the date of accident and premiums have not been paid, the policy will lapse and non-forfeiture provisions mentioned in non-forfeiture conditions section will be applicable.

Once the policyholder is declared eligible to receive the benefits under Accidental Total and Permanent Disability, the coverage under this rider will cease immediately.

If accident occurs during the rider term and the rider is in-force at the time of accident, and death/disability caused directly by such accident and independent of all other causes within 180 days of the accident, accidental death benefit/accidental total and permanent disability benefit shall be payable even if the death/disability occurs after end/lapse of the base or rider policy term.

“Accidental Total and Permanent Disability” means that the life assured has solely and directly as a result of an accident suffered the following for at least 180 days:

- i. total and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or
- ii. loss by severance of two limbs at or above wrist or ankle, or

- iii. total and irrecoverable loss of the sight of one eye and loss by severance of one limb at or above wrist or ankle.

- Maturity Benefit

There is no maturity benefit under this rider.

Other Features

- Grace Period

The grace period will be same as applicable for the base plan.

- Non-forfeiture Conditions

The plan provides non-forfeiture benefits as described below:

Lapse:

- Limited pay:
 - If premium payment term is less than 10 years, rider benefit shall lapse at the end of the grace period if all premiums have not been paid in full for first two consecutive years.
 - If premium payment term is greater than or equal to 10 years, rider benefit shall lapse at the end of the grace period if all premiums have not been paid in full for first three consecutive years.
- Regular pay:
 - Benefit will lapse if due premiums are not received till the end of the grace period.

No benefit is payable when the rider is in lapse status

Paid-up benefits:

- Limited Pay: If any of the rider premiums are unpaid and the rider has acquired surrender value, rider can be converted into paid-up. Rider will be made paid-up only if the base policy is converted to paid-up, subject to the terms and conditions of the base policy.
 - Once the rider becomes paid-up, the waiver of premium benefit in the event of Accidental Total and Permanent Disability shall no longer be applicable.
 - Rider benefit will be based on paid-up rider sum assured, where paid-up rider sum assured is:
Paid-up Rider Sum Assured = (Total Rider Premiums paid divided by Total Rider Premiums payable) multiplied by Rider Sum Assured
- Regular Pay: Rider shall not acquire any paid-up value.

Surrender benefits:

If the base policy to which the rider is attached is lapsed or surrendered, the rider policy will be lapsed or surrendered and the surrender value, if any, shall be payable as per the table above. The rider policy will be terminated once it is surrendered.

Premium payment	Surrender benefit	Surrender value (SV)
Limited pay	For premium payment term less than 10 years: Surrender value will be acquired after the payment of 2 full years' rider premiums.	75% multiplied by Total rider premiums paid excluding first year rider premium multiplied by [(rider term less premium payment term) divided by rider term] multiplied by (Outstanding rider term divided by rider term)
	For premium payment term greater than or equal to 10 years: Surrender value will be acquired after the payment of 3 full years' rider premiums.
Regular pay	No benefit payable	No benefit payable

Total rider premiums paid means the total rider premiums paid during the rider Premium Payment Term of the rider policy, excluding service tax and underwriting extra premiums, if any.

• Revival

Revival will be based on Company’s Board approved Underwriting Policy. All terms and conditions applicable under the base plan shall be applicable to this rider. The revival of the rider shall take effect only if the base policy is in force or it has been revived.
