What is there in this Rider?

Benefit structure:

Events	How and when benefits are payable	Size of such benefits
Death	The accidental death benefit is payable if death occurs directly as a result of an accident and within 180 days of the occurrence of the accident.	Benefit is equal to the basic sum assured
Disability	The total and permanent disablement benefit is payable if the life assured becomes totally and permanently disabled directly as a result of an accident. Total and permanent disablement is defined as the total and irrecoverable loss of sight of both eyes, or loss by severance of two limbs at or above wrist or ankle, or total and irrecoverable loss of the sight of one eye and loss by severance of one limb at or above wrist or ankle for a period of at least six months.	Benefit is equal to the basic sum assured paid in ten equal annual installments. If the life assured becomes totally and permanently disabled, then Reliance Life Insurance will waive all future premiums under the basic policy and riders up to a limit of ₹ 40,000 per annum.

The first instalment will be paid on admission of the claim, and the remaining annual instalments on the anniversaries of the date of payment of the first instalment. If life assured dies or if the basic policy matures before payment of all the ten instalments, any unpaid instalments will be paid along with the death or maturity benefit under the basic policy. On admission of a total and permanent disablement claim, cover under the accidental death benefit will automatically terminate.

On total and permanent disablement of the life assured due to accident, the annualised premium under the basic policy and riders up to ₹ 40,000 will be waived. The first premium waived shall be the one falling due immediately after the commencement date of disablement. However, we will not waive any premium with a due date more than one year before the date on which we receive written notice of claim.

Prohibition of Rebate: Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 states:

- 1) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the Policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a Policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer.

Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bona fide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

- 2) Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Section 45: Policy not to be called in question on ground of mis-statement after two years

No policy of life insurance effected before the commencement of this Act shall after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act and no policy of life insurance effected after the coming into force of this Act shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected, be called in question by an insurer on the ground that statement made in the proposal for insurance or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to the issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such statement was on a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policy-holder and that the policy-holder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
